Given Post at Augusta, Ga.

First Lieutenani Samuel Evans, Jr., of $80 North Twenty-seventh street, has been appointed aide-de-camp to Brigadier General Oliver Edwards, commanding the machine-gun training center at Augusta, Ga.

Lieutenant Evans, who was commissioned a second lieutenant in the first officers' training camp at Fort Niagara, last year, has seen active service in France for several months with the Fourth Machine Gun Battalion, Second Division, and was more than two months in the trenches. He spent one week last spring near Chateau-Thierry, in the sector where American machine gunners were deatined later to turn the tide of the German advance.

Lieutenant Evans returned from France recently as an instructor. He reported at the machine-gun training center June 30 and was assigned to the machine-gun school. He received his promotion to first lieutenant September

Leslie and his friends, one of them named Bishop, were surrounded by a sudden retirement of Company C. of Somerset. Although wounded, the German stripped them of all except their undershirts and trousers and rolled tasm into a shell nole. They had a little water at first, given to them by a young German, the only one of the lot whose pity was touched by the plight of the American boys.

Three days later the Germans came back to take them prisoners, but when the boys couldn't walk a squad prepared to shoot them. The young German interceded and they were spared. When French soldiers finally came to their rescue, they could not taik. One of the trio died on a streether on the way to the hospital.

NOTICE

Select Council Likely to Refuse Approval of Appointees Who Elected Gudehus

Select Council may refuse to confirm Mayor Smith's appointers to the Board of Recreation who elected E. B. Gudehus, the former secretary of Senator Vare, supervising principal of playgrounds. Twenty-one members of the upper chamber, which is required by law to confirm or reject the Mayor's appointments, are said to be pledged to vote against Gudehus's sponsors in the Board of Recreation To confirm an appointment a two-thirds majority, or thirty-two votes, are required. As there are two vacancies in Select Council, a vote of twenty-one members against the Mayor's appointers could leave only twenty-five members to ote for confirmation.

Should Select Council refuse to confirm the Mayor's appointees, they and Gudehus automatically would be legislated out of office. In the bill of equity filed by R. Francis Wood, a taxpuyer, to test the Mayor's right to make the four atmosphirms, it is an incept that four appointments it is set forth that the Mayor is required by law to notify Select Council of all removals and ask the confirmation of appointments.
